MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Junior Officer Training Program

FROM : Assessment and Evaluation Staff, OIR

25X1A9a SUBJECT : [REDACTED] JOT Resignee

25X1A9a

1. [REDACTED] was exit interviewed on 30 July 1962. 2. [REDACTED] admits freely now that he wanted the DDP only because it offered a chance to get overseas and that he was fighting himself all through training because he abhorred a case officer's duties and responsibilities. His persistence in a situation where he felt so out of place both socially and course-wise he admits was not very wise, but he looks back on it as good experience.

2. [REDACTED] had few comments to make about the JOT Program, training, or his present job. In general, he did not give the impression of being a disgruntled employee. He realizes that many of his problems were of his own making and if he were really career-minded he could have found one here. His new job offers him the opportunity to live and travel overseas which he wanted so much and he is quite happy to have found it. Although he talks about the possibility of coming back to the Agency, he still has long-range plans of becoming a professor in some university.
